MISSION STATEMENT

RELIGION INDEX ONE: PERIODICALS (RIO®)
AND ## RELIGION INDEX TWO: MULTI-AUTHOR WORKS (RIT®)

It shall be the purpose of RIO® and RIT® to index those articles in the field of religion—particularly religion and religious scholarship in the West—which are germane to research in and serve to document that field. The intended audience includes scholars, teachers, students who are engaged in the study of religion and related fields; clergy; other religious leaders; and the general reader in religion.

PREFACE

The faithful user of Religion Index One: Periodicals may perhaps notice that volume 26, 1994 is the largest single-year edition in our history. What will not be apparent, we hope, are the major changes in the personnel that compile this index. The new coordinators have much to be thankful for and many to thank at the end of their first year editing RIO.

Former editor Don Haymes has now become Senior Indexer/Analyst for the Religion Indexes. He has mentored both of the current editors in his own inimitable way. Brother Haymes is a contrarian by nature ("It is not the only or the easiest way to come to truth. It is one way." writes the poet Wendell Berry), an iconoclast by conviction, and an untiring shepherd of words by force of habit and vocation. His indefatigable energy (the first to arrive, the last to leave) and patience in the face of recurring error (the editor's bane) have taught us perhaps the greatest secret of good editing - staying in one's chair! In the rarefied and often anemic atmosphere that surrounds serious young scholars, Don reminds us that religion is rooted in dirt, sweat, blood, and tears. We will not see his like again.

Former co-editor Karl Frantz is now a programmer for Information Services where he will help guide us through the shoals of the information age. We are grateful to Don and Karl for their support and encouragement during the past year.

This annual edition contains 16,103 records, indexed under 39,375 subject entries. We have indexed articles from 508 periodicals, including 31 new titles, and 30 "scan" titles. There are over 10,000 cross-references.

Ipsita Chatterjea, Eric Christiansen, Carolyn K. Coates, Don Haymes, Steven W. Holloway, and Mary Jo A. Johnson performed the indexing duties for this volume. With two new editors and four new indexers, Theresa Susie Mendoza has become the veteran of the RIO team. Her attention to detail has saved these novice editors from many an egregious error. Sara Frederick and Chantal Jean-Baptiste saw to journal control (a thankless yet indispensable task). We relied on Carl J. Anderson for technical assistance.

Much thanks to our Executive Director Albert E. Hurd, to our new Director of Operations Dennis A. Norlin, and to the administration, staff, and membership of the American Theological Library Association.
